

REMARKS

Very thanks for Examination's suggestion and thanks for finding some cited documents, the applicant may know more information about this application case. The case has been reviewed carefully according to the cited documents. And some errors of the specification are corrected according to the official action; even the error of legend of the Fig. 5 is already corrected. Claims 20-26 now are cancelled. The applicant also tries to find some documents can proof that the cited documents still have some "environmental friendly" problems, but the present invention may provide a substituted solution for the user's reference.